School Song

Once more unite our youthful voices,
Amidst our halls the strains to raise,
With rapid swell the heart rejoices,
When virtue is the theme of praise,
We follow those who have trodden uprightly,
As well in sunshine as in rain,
Pupils old and new we do fashion so tightly,
Enduring links of one long chain.

C h o r u s :

We pupils of Assumption English School,
When God from on High sheds his light on our way,
We, pupils of Assumption English School,
The White and the Blue shall be known far and wide,
The White and the Blue, the White and the Blue,
Shall be ever Boys' Town's pride.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to
